

China Grill
230 North Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois

Client: Becker Ventures
Architect: Yabu Pushelberg
Role: General Contractor

With renowned sister restaurants in New York, Miami, Las Vegas and Mexico City, China Grill in Chicago is bristling with a high-energy atmosphere and globe-spanning cuisine.

China Grill has an exotic reputation for artfully prepared meals amidst a lavish decor. This colorful restaurant, housed in the swanky Hard Rock Hotel, boasts vaulted ceilings, multi-level dining areas and luxurious and energetic bar and lounge areas.

Finishes in the 6,000 SF restaurant are both elegant and edgy. Walls are lacquered and interspersed with mirrored panels. Lighting is dramatic. Flooring includes portions of veined stone tile as well as detailed wood-inlaid areas.

China Grill offers an exhibition kitchen, visible from the main dining floor and also from the raised platform seating that encircles the restaurant.

An expansive bar at the front of the restaurant looks out onto pedestrians and traffic on North Michigan Avenue
