

Midlothian Public Library
14701 S. Kenton, Midlothian, Illinois

Client: Midlothian Public Library
Architect: Frye Gillan Molinaro Architects, Ltd.
Role: General Contractor

International Contractors, Inc. was awarded the General Contract for the new Midlothian Public Library in Midlothian, Illinois. The library is a single story structure with a center atrium, extending 37 feet in the air and topped with a needle-like spire.

Low unobtrusive wings flank the striking red and white contemporary glass design. The daylight illuminates the interior through the atrium curtain wall.

In addition to the 14,000 square foot structure, International Contractors, Inc. constructed two secluded garden areas and a parking lot on the campus.
