

Schamberger Brothers, Inc.
101 East Hill Street, Villa Park, Illinois

Client: Chamberger Brothers, Inc.
Architect: M. Elliot Architects, Inc.
ICI Role: Construction Manager
Complete: March 2008

Schamberger Brothers, Inc., one of the oldest family-owned beverage distributors in the country, chose ICI to serve as construction manager in the 7,600 square foot renovation of their Villa Park offices.

Major renovations took place in the Schamberger offices and Assembly Room. Renovations included 4 executive offices, the receptionist area, catering area, drivers room and the district managers offices.

The Assembly Room serves to showcase their premium beverages. A full audio-visual system, projector with LCD televisions and a full working bar with individual product beer tappers are included in the Assembly Room.

The Schamberger office doors are of a Gothic style while the building's millwork is Alder Wood that finishes beautifully in a light color with a tight grain structure.

Schamberger Brothers, Inc. has been in business for over 75 years. The third generation of Schamberger Brothers and owners are Hermann III, Joseph and John.
